Mayor and Council Comments

Mayor Cummings asks if the council had anything to report from their committees. Councilman Lindsey states that he would like for public works to work on getting the grass out of the flower beds. Also, the trash cans need to be cleaned and changed out on a schedule in the downtown area. He states that he will be meeting with the Zeta Cemetery committee to discuss procedures with the sales and record keeping. He states that there is a new business coming to downtown but he will give out more details later. Councilman Hartley states that GA Power is changing the lights to LED in the north side of town. He states that he met with the post office regarding the repairs needed. Mayor ProTem Crawford states that he attended the District 7 meeting in Thomson. He states that we got some information to share with Mayor Cummings. Mayor Cummings states that we will have the Public Hearing on October 31 at 5:00 p.m. for the Trackage Pub and Deli license. She states that we have received the quote for our workman's comp insurance. The council agreed to make the payment in one lump sum payment according to the agreement. Mayor Cummings states that Tim Ingram finished the remaining items for EPD. She states that there was a repair at the waste water treatment plant on a motor. There being no further business, motion made by Keith Lindsey, seconded by David Hartley, to adjourn. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned at 7:15 p.m.
